

Easily transfer to CSU from Community College of Baltimore County

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF CCBC AND CSU'S DEGREES TO SUCCEED PROGRAM

Start Your Path Toward Your Bachelor's

Complete your associate degree at Community College of Baltimore County (CCBC) and transfer credits seamlessly to earn your bachelor's degree at Coppin State University (CSU) thanks to the Degrees to Succeed program.

DEGREES TO SUCCEED BENEFITS

CSU is an HBCU that offers more than 53 majors and is recognized for their arts and sciences, teacher education, and nursing programs.

Some programs require students to apply to both Coppin and their major. These programs have additional admission requirements and/or separate application process:

- Education
- Health Information Management
- Nursing
- Social Work

Questions about these programs and requirements should be directed to the specific program or department.

Co-advising with CSU advisors to ensure your CCBC courses align with your chosen CSU program.

Access to institutional, academic, and student support services at CSU.

Acceptance of up to 45 credits of prior learning credit.

Acceptance of all transfer credits for Associate of Arts (A.A.) and Associate of Science (A.S.) degree programs with Junior Standing.

SAVE WITH A $1000 TRANSFER SCHOLARSHIP

When you complete your associate degree at CCBC, you can earn your bachelor's degree at CSU at reduced cost with a dedicated one-time $1000 CCBC transfer scholarship with opportunities to apply for additional transfer scholarships.

Get Started TODAY!

Learn more at ccbcm.edu/CSU.